from the Editor of "Jai Nadu" Bangalore.

Request that on Mr P.B
Srinivasan, his assistant may be permitted to edit, print & publish the paper "Jai Nadu".
Draft of a reply is subd for orders.
17/11/36

Mr P. R. Ramiah is now the Editor, Printer & Publisher of the
"Jai Naidu" as a Kannada Daily.

He now asks that his "Assistant"
Mr P. B. Srinivasan may be given permission to edit, print & publish an anglo-Kannada weekly by the same name as "Jai Naidu", and adds that he (Mr Ramiah) will be the Proprietor of the paper and that the paper will be printed at his Press.

The request is not quite clear. It looks as if Mr Ramiah will really be the Printer & Publisher of the weekly also,
& Mr Srinivasan would be only the Editor.
It is for consideration whether it is desirable to have two papers

The reasons adduced by the Dist Magte for not recommending grant of permission to the applicant are extracted below :- (1) "His (Mr P.R. (2) "If permn is given for an English periodical the language will serve as an effective media to carry on undesirable propaganda etc". Jaimada is one of the leading vernacular daily papers and its tone appears to be temperate one whatever it was some years back. The paper has a representative in delhi to report about the proceedings of the legislature Assembly. on the recommendation of the Government of Bombay that representative was given facilities there of late I do not see any unfair intemperate criticism about Government officers. Lately there were some columns by Nagra Sanchari complaining that Hoshiarpur Constable are [illegible] Nobody the D. S. P may refer to this. If any article is intemperate the alleged libel can be dealt with.

I do not when he is allowed to publish a Kannada paper there may not be any objection to allow him to publish an Anglo Kannada weekly. The proposed editor Mr. Srinivasan has had training received by an England in journalism.

The accompanying papers relate to the application of one Mr. P.B. Srinivasan, to edit an Anglo-Kannada Weekly by name "Tai Nadu".

Mr. P.B. Srinivasan, referred to above, is now working as Assistant to the Editor of the daily "Tai Nadu". A new Weekly is proposed to be started, under the same name, with

J

Mr. Srinivasan as Editor but under the proprietorship of Mr.P.R. Ramaiya, the Editor of the Daily.

A report was as usual obtained from the District Magistrate in the matter. The Superintendent of Police, Bangalore City, states that Mr. P.R. Ramaiya himself had applied on two occasions for permission to edit a journal in English and as Government did not give him the permission, he has apparently set up his Assistant, Mr. P.B. Srinivasan, to apply for permission to edit such a paper. The tone of the present Daily "Tai Nadu" is also stated to be not free from objection. In the circumstances, the District Magistrate is not in favour of Mr. Srinivasan's application being granted.

R

The Second Member of Council and I agree with the opinion of the District Magistrate. Gracious sanction is solicited to refuse the permission asked for.

Mr Ramaiya had seen me and represented that since he had been conducting 'Jai Hind' without serious complaint, his request for bringing out an English-Kannada weekly may be favourably considered. He also stated that refusal on a previous occasion was due to financial considerations. From a perusal of the previous file, it is seen that refusal in 1933 was based not on financial grounds. The attitude of the paper and the political bias of the Editor had also been adverted to.

It is only recently that his application on behalf of Mr S. B. Srinivasan was rejected. It is for orders whether his prayer for reconsideration could be entertained now, so soon after the last order.

With reference to your Memo No.Jl.P.R.419/36-37 dated 30-11-36 regarding the application of one Mr.P.B.Sreenivasan, to edit an Anglo-Kannada Weekly, styled "Tai Nadu", I have the honour to state as follows:-

"Y ९ ८ ७"

2) Mr. Prathivadi Bhayankara Sreenivasan is the eldest son of Mr. P.B. Ramaswamy Iyengar, Over-seer, Mysore P.W.D. and is aged about 28 years. He is an under-graduate of the Madras University and his second language is Telugu.

Recently he had proceeded to England and the Continent to study Journalism and this tour was financed by Mr.P.R. Ramiah, Editor of "Tai Nadu".

4) In this connection I like to bring to your kind notice that Mr P.R.Ramiah who will apparently be the Printer and Publisher of this weekly, is backing this application, since he was refused permission by the Government, when he applied to Edit an English Weekly styled the "Globe", in their Order No.3702/PP-1-32-172 dated 23rd June 1933. When he again applied to the Government to Edit a English monthly styled "The Indian States Problems", the same was rejected in Govt. Notification No. 452/CB.12-34-34 dated 30th August 1934.

5) Having failed in his two attempts to get permission to Edit and Publish some periodical in English, he has put up his Assistant Editor to the fore-front. His paper indulges in intemperate criticism of Government and its Officers and imputes motives.

6) Besides if permission is given for an English periodical, the language will serve as an effective media to carry on undesirable propaganda, especially in view of what the Assistant Editor has been publishing in the 'Nagarasanchariya Diary' of the daily edition of 'Tai Nadu'.

7) I am of opinion that the permission prayed for by the applicant

Dear Sir,

I request you to kindly reconsider your refusal to permit me to edit "Tainadu" Anglo Kannada weekly and grant me permission to edit the same.

I am imbued with a spirit of service to the people and I wish to use my journalistic training and experience for this purpose. I hope you will kindly furnish me an opportunity to do so.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully
P. B. Srinivasan.
